Steve did an excellent job in recommending and achieving a sales price that was above expectations. He was insistent that he could sell at that price point and he delivered.

Communication was timely and I was pleased with the strategy that was taken to bring the property to sale. Steve was patient and helpful in prepping the house for sale before a listing agreement was signed. He was patient for a couple of months while I finished the work. He also provided me with outside contractor recommendations that were critical. Very professional and focused on achieving the sale.

Steve was great to work with from day one. He explained the process of home buying and helped us through it every step of the way. Steve was polite, friendly, timely and always available to answer any questions that we had. He was considerate of our needs and wants, and cared about our happiness. We can't say enough about how truly happy we are with working with Steve. We highly recommend Steve to anyone who is looking to buy or sell a home!

Steve quickly reached out to us and was immediately sending us listing based on the criteria we specified for our next home. He worked diligently to schedule all the showings once we narrowed down the listings we were interested in. On the day of the viewings, Steve gave us plenty of time to examine each house and pointed out both features and drawbacks to each property which we would've missed without his attention to detail. When we did find a property we were interested in, Steve helped us create an offer which we could afford and addressed some of the concerns we had about the property. Steve helped us get the property at a price we could afford. When it came to the sales process, Steve helped to make sure that we completed all items on time and helped us to complete the settlement of the house on time and with no significant issues. We were very happy with Steve and would recommend him to our family and friends.

As first time homebuyers we really didn't know much - just that the process could potentially be very stressful and confusing. Steve made things very easy for us and answered all our questions. The whole process went very smoothly.

Steve was very patient. At one point we felt bad because we must have looked at 50 properties. He was available whenever we needed him and always responded to texts and e-mails promptly. Steve even helped us and worked when he was on vacation.

We couldn't have had a better experience. We will definitely contact Steve when it's time to sell our home.

Steve is expert in his negotiations with prospective buyers. He always provided good advice to me. He was attentive to the appearance of the property and forwarded all paperwork quickly with explanations as they were needed.

When selling a property, the owner is looking for an agent who is knowledgeable, knows the area and accessible. Steve is all of these things. He has a lot of experience and seems to know the real estate business inside and out. Steve owns a home and lives locally so he understands the strengths of the market. In addition, Steve makes sure he is accessible by phone, text or email all of the time. If for some reason he is unavailable, he let me know ahead of time. Very good at his job and highly recommended!

Steven Tamburello was absolutely wonderful to work with as a buyer (and we are now working with him as a seller too.) While looking for our home Steven was patient and always available to show us homes that we were interested in. He would provide us with information about homes as they came on the market. One of the many things we appreciated about Steven was his knowledge about the entire home buying process and the areas we were looking at. His advice was valuable as we narrowed down our search zone. He was not a pushy salesman, but really took time to make sure we found a great home that would meet our needs. Steven would respond to any correspondences in a quick, timely manner. Working with Steven, one could tell that he was detail oriented. One example of this was being proactive weeks before our closing at making sure our home inspection needs were taken care of. He was professional at all times, friendly, and always had our best interests in mind. I would highly recommend working with Steven and would use his services again in the future if needed.

Steve has been my relator since my first ever home purchase and now as my agent for buying and selling investment properties. This was my 3rd overall transaction with him. He continues to go above and beyond to get the transaction done. For this purchase we were buying a bank owned property. The bank become difficult to work with during closing but Steve stayed on top of them to make sure we were able to get the transaction done. He's always super quick to respond to emails and is excellent at navigating the always interesting closing process. He is also able to provide helpful design advice for our renovations. I couldn't of asked for a better realtor than Steven Tamburello. I had no experience purchasing a home and he made the entire process as smooth as can be. I had specific requirements and I never felt pressured into a place that didn't meet my expectations completely. He is super quick to respond to email and he always had good recommendations for contractors, inspectors, etc. Even after being under contract he took time out of his day to meet me at the property so I could get quotes from contractors on work I wanted to start as soon as we closed. Once again Steve Tamburello did an awesome job. This is my second time going with him as my realtor. For this sale my business partner and I were rehabbing a home to resell. Steve came by at the beginning of the process to give his advice on what buyers would be looking for. When we finished renovations he came by to take beautiful photos of the house and get it listed. My girlfriend and I recently purchased our first home. We couldn't have done it without Steve's assistance! We briefly worked with another agent who left a bad taste in our mouths. We decided to give it another shot. We met Steve at an open house and immediately gained confidence. He promptly reached out to set up an appointment. As first-time buyers, he sat us down and walked us through the process from start to finish. He answered all of our questions and made us feel comfortable before there was any discussion of numbers. He used his knowledge of the area to show us 10+ homes that met our criteria. When our first offer fell through, he kept us calm and reassured all while immediately sending us info on additional properties. He was always accessible. He even reached out over Thanksgiving to inform us that a property of interest was going back on the market. He made sure we got in to see it right away, and assisted us in making a fair, educated offer that the sellers accepted. His services didn't stop there. When it came to home inspections - he was excellent! He provided us with a wealth of knowledge and tips that were greatly appreciated. When a potential underground oil tank arose, he took the lead to guide us through the necessary steps to address it. He even took time out of his schedule to be present for a test we could not attend. What could have been a deal-breaker ended up being a false alarm. Nonetheless, Steve handled the situation impeccably. His attention to detail kept us on track right up to closing - which he was even able to push up a couple of weeks. We're now the proud owners of our very first home and can't thank Steve enough! His understanding, accessibility and punctuality make him an excellent choice. Should the opportunity arise, we would strongly recommend Steve's services!
